

Memorandum of Understanding between the University Consortium for Geographic Information Science (UCGIS) and the Australasian Spatial Information Education and Research Association (ASIERA)

This Agreement, also known as a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), is entered into on this 24 day of May, 2016, by the University Consortium for Geographic Information Science, hereinafter called "UCGIS", and the Australasian Spatial Information Education and Research Association, hereinafter called "ASIERA".

1. UCGIS and ASIERA agree to cooperate in the following activities, which are to their mutual benefit:
 - a. Disseminate information and materials about each organization to members of the other using standardized and previously agreed-upon processes and methods that are consistent with each organization's policies and practices;
 - b. Refer to this MOU in the promotional and communication materials of each organization, such as their websites;
 - c. Up to two delegates from ASIERA shall be allowed to register for the annual UCGIS Symposium at Member rates;
 - d. Provide opportunities for each organization to share an update or related news item in the other's organizational publications, such as a newsletter;
 - e. Any other activity agreed by the governing bodies of both organizations.
2. This MOU applies to UCGIS and ASIERA as organizations in their entirety. It does not provide any individual members of ASIERA or UCGIS membership rights in the other (e.g., voting rights or special membership rates at its activities, other than the designated complimentary exchange of official representatives).
3. This MOU between UCGIS and ASIERA supersedes any previous version.
4. This MOU between UCGIS and ASIERA will be reviewed every two years by the governing bodies of both organizations before being formally renewed. In the absence of a review by either body, it will be assumed that this MOU has lapsed.
